

No. 20 NG seminar Continuous professional education in the field of crime prevention and pathological phenomena - "Crime prevention at the local level"

On October 20, 2022, the planned activity - seminar Continuous professional education in the field of crime prevention and pathological phenomena – “Crime prevention at the local level” took place as part of the PDP1 project "Increasing police competence in preventing and combating crime, strengthening communication skills with the public and awareness of human rights". The seminar was held online (technical background and participants from the crime prevention department - room 088, Ministry of the Interior, Nad Štolou 3, Prague 7).

The seminar "Crime prevention at the local level" was attended by 100 participants, mainly from regional and municipal authorities, the Municipal Police and the Police of the Czech Republic. The participants were acquainted with the Crime Prevention Program at the local level for 2023 and the Departmental Crime Prevention Program for 2023. There was also a presentation of the security implications of the refugee wave related to the Russian invasion of Ukraine. In this context, information was provided about the newly announced 2nd round of the Crime Prevention Program at the local level, which is aimed at managing the effects of the refugee wave. Other points of the program were: familiarization with the outputs of the Maps of the Future II project, IKSP (Institute of Criminology and Social Prevention) research in the field of crime prevention, digital addiction in the Czech Republic, "October - cyber security month".

These seminars will continue.